

#PiPent Debate. Share. Learn.

PRACTICE INTO POLICY: ENTREPRENEURIAL LEARNING!
11 May 2017
Royal Library of Belgium

12.30	Registration
12.45	Welcome from Event Partners
13.00	Energise and Engage
13:15	The Policy Perspective: Rodrigo Ballester - European Commission Cabinet of Commissioner Tibor Navracsics – Education, Youth, Sport and Culture
13:30	#1 Lightning Learn - European Funding supporting Entrepreneurial Learning Lightning talks from EU projects on entrepreneurial learning – followed by interactive session Competendo Nils-Eyk Zimmermann, MITOST iLinc Anusca Ferrari, European Schoolnet EntreAssess Rebecca Weicht, Bantani Education Entrepreneurial Ecosystems in 9 Flemish Cities Reineke Vandevenne, Flanders Innovation & Entrepreneurship
14:40	Learning From Practice - EARLALL collating best practice from local authorities and regions
14:55	#2 Lightning Learn Lightning talks from EU projects on entrepreneurial learning – followed by interactive session EcosystemApp Kathryn Penaluna, University of Wales Trinity Saint David YEDAC Allan Nordby Ottesen, South Denmark European Office YouthStart Dana Redford, Policy Experimentation and Evaluation Platform StudentStartUP Jean-Pierre Segers, PXL University College Hasselt
16:05	Panel Discussion: For practice, for policy, for moving forward future projects. Andy Penaluna – University of Wales Trinity Saint David Alen Maletic – Lifelong Learning Platform Margherita Bacigalupo – Joint Research Centre, European Commission Maria Podlasek-Ziegler – DG Education, Youth, Sport and Culture, European Commission
16.40	Closing reflections Anthony Gribben - European Training Foundation, European Commission
16:50	Next steps for PiPent
17:00	Cocktail
17.30	Close